

Monday, June 20, 2011

ROOM	102/104	106	108	110/112	201	203	205	207	601	603	605	607	702	704/706	708	710/712	111	113	709	711	ROOM
1:00pm-2:30pm	Scale Matters: Planning and Design for Healthy Communities	Effect of the Built Environment on Community Health	Federal Healthy Homes Legislation and Policy	Developing, Supporting, and Sustaining Healthy Homes – Part 1	Understanding Indoor Air: How the System Works	Conducting a Residential Environmental Health Assessment	Designing Culturally Conscious Sustainable Tribal Housing	Doing Good and Building Better Green and Healthy Homes	Green & Healthy Homes Initiative Overview & Tutorial	Making Health and Safety Standard Practice: Health and IAQ Protocols for Residential Energy Retrofits and Upgrades	The Making of Healthy-Homes.gov: Lessons Learned and Sneak Preview	Healthy Homes Education Through University Extension Programs	Windows and Exterior Sources of Lead: Emerging Evidence about These Potential Hazards and Methods of Control	How to Determine the Health of a Home – Part 1	Multifamily Integrated Pest Management Solutions	Healthy, Green and Affordable: Green Building Meets Tax Credit Developments	What We Know About Health Impacts of Energy Upgrades: Current Research	Creating Successful Healthy Homes Programs	Best Practices for Sustainable Communities in Region VIII	Environmental Management of Pediatric Asthma: A Skill-Building Institute for Health Professionals – Part 1
3:00pm-4:30pm	How the Environment Outside Our Homes Can Promote Healthy Active Lifestyles	Building Public Health Connections	Integrating Energy+ Health into Volunteer Home Repair Programs	Homes, Schools and Kids: Connecting the Policy Dots to Get Children Active	Radon: A Global Perspective	Empowering Tenants through Promotoras, Tenant Organizations, and Legal Counsel	Can We Live Healthy/Green without Addressing Radon?	Historical Persistence of Unhealthy Homes	Green & Healthy Homes Initiative Assessment Tool	Who is Doing Healthy Weatherization and How?	The National Eco-Healthy Child Care Program	Communication Strategies to Create Healthier Homes	The Real Cost of Poor Housing in England	Pesticides and Other Persistent Chemical Contaminants in Homes and Their Potential Health Impact	Lung Cancer Prevention Through Radon Mitigation: Affordable Approaches	Universal Design in Healthy Affordable Housing	Public Health in Housing and Community Development	Local and State Housing Codes and Healthy Housing Policy	Green & Healthy Homes Market Research Results	Environmental Management of Pediatric Asthma: A Skill-Building Institute for Health Professionals – Part 2
4:15pm-5:15pm	Outdoor Classroom Design and Urban Greening: Community Design for Health	Wellness Scoring and Results-Based Accountability to Target Health Improvement	Doing No Harm: Policies that Prevent Exposure to Lead and Radon	Healthy Housing Case Studies: Moving Upstream to Transform Communities and the Detroit Healthy Homes Database	Protecting the Community from Radon Exposure	High Risk Housing: Identification and Implementation	Promoting Health and Safety through Universal Design	Housing Design for Autism	A Synergistic Approach to Healthy Homes	Radon Mitigation in Existing Homes: Proven and Innovative	EPA's Outreach for Lead Poisoning Prevention	Campaigns for Healthy Homes	Burdens of Home Injury and Death: Associated Costs and Benefits of Interventions and Prevention Strategies	Green, More than a Color: Research on the Potential Benefits of Green Housing on the Indoor Environment and Health	IPM: Study and Practices from the Field	Affordable Can Be Healthy Too	Getting Residential Ventilation Right	Home Performance Laborer Apprenticeship – Developing Craftsmen for Healthy Housing	The Healthy Homes Program Guidance Manual – Part 1

Presentation Not Available

Presentation Not Available

Presentation Not Available