

Wednesday, June 22, 2011

ROOM	102/104	106	108	110/112	201	203	205	207	601	603	605	607	702	704/706	708	710/712	111	113	709	711	ROOM
1:00pm-3:00pm	Connecting Communities to Healthy Environments in Nature	Health and Public Infrastructure	Home Environmental Assessments: Tools for Physicians	Smoke-Free Housing and Green Building Programs	Healthy Homes in Alaska Native and American Indian Communities	Getting the Biggest Bang from Your Healthy Homes Buck	The ABC's of Integrated Pest Management in Low Income Housing: Allergens, Baits, and Cockroach Mitigation Strategies	Weatherization Plus Health: From Workforce to Implementation	Learning Networks and Partnerships to Enhance Green and Healthy Homes Programs	Toward Healthier Building Codes and Rehabilitation Standards	Healthy Housing Market Outreach Through Private Sector Strategic Collaborations Presentation Not Available	The Collaborative Process: Transitioning from Lead Prevention to Healthy Homes Interventions	Putting Health at the Centre of Housing Policies: Lessons Learned from England's Housing Health and Safety Rating System	Stay Warm & Eat Well: Reducing Indoor Air Pollution from Cooking and Unvented Gas Appliances	Boston's City-Wide Approach to Smoke-Free Housing	Bed Bugs: Biology Behavior and Sustainable Control	Building & Implementing a National Advertising Campaign	Partnering with Philanthropy Presentation Not Available	Improving Resident Health Conditions Through Energy Efficiency Programs	How to Determine the Health of a Home - Part 2
4:30pm-5:30pm	The Role of Placemaking in Creating Healthy Places	Certified Sustainable Communities: A Planning Tool for Healthy Neighborhoods	Deep Green: Saving Money While Reducing Risk & Improving Health	Home Inspectors Identify Health and Safety Issues in the Home	Community Health Workers' Roles in Healthy Homes	Clean, Green and Healthy Homes	From Isolation to Integration: Strategies for Mixed Ability Users	Debunking the "Un-healthy" Myth of Factory Built Housing and Its Use as a Superior Healthy Building Alternative	DOE Weatherization Assistance Program Health and Safety	Using GIS for Healthy Housing Surveillance in Los Angeles County	Prevention in Practice: Promoting Healthy Homes for New Americans	Building Capacity to Prevent Lead Hazards: Evaluation of Tools and Training that Make a Difference	Moisture in Homes: Improving our Understanding of Sources and Interventions to Mitigate Problems and Reduce Humidity	Nanoparticles and Nitrogen Dioxide from Stoves: Health Effects and Strategies to Reduce Exposure and Improve Asthma Control	Carbon Monoxide Poisoning Awareness and Prevention	CO - What You Need to Know	Incorporating Feng Shui in Affordable Housing	Is it Green or Just Part of the Hype?	New Federal Radon Action Plan: What it Means and What's Next	Home Occupant Sampling for Lead, Dust Allergens and Fungi: Significance of Home Hazard Perception and Comparative Professional Test Results		